A) For items (1-7), read the following text carefully, then choose the correct answer from A, B, C or D to complete the following sentences.

Last month, Mazen's school went on a trip with their teacher to Jerash, one of the most famous historical cities in Jordan. The students were very excited because it was their first time visiting ancient Roman ruins. Early in the morning, they got on the bus, and the bus driver started the journey. When they arrived, the tour guide welcomed them and told them many interesting stories about the old theaters, temples, and streets. Mazen took many pictures of these places. His friend Ahmad enjoyed walking on the stone streets where ancient people once walked. In the afternoon, the students sat together, and they had lunch under the trees. The weather was sunny and warm, which made the trip even better. It was an amazing day!
